Enquiry Question

Would you rather be an Anglo Saxon or a Viking?

What should I already know?

- The Stone Age was when early humans used tools from stone. This lasted until the Bronze Age.
- The Bronze Age began when settlers arrived from Europe to Britain. These settlers brought with them ways of making tools from metal (bronze).
- The Iron Age lasted from 800 BC till the Roman invasion (AD 43) - this was when people used tools made from iron.
- In AD 43, the Romans under the order of Emperor Claudius, first invaded Britain and Roman rule lasted until AD 410.

Concept

Substantive Knowledge (key facts)

- Anglo Saxons were invited by the Romans to fight the Picts and Scots.
- When the Romans were ordered to return to the Empire, Anglo Saxons took over the East of England, Britons remained in the West (410AD)
- More Anglo Saxons travelled to Britain to settle as farmers and established villages across the East.
- Vikings invaded by sea in Longboats because they wanted gold from the monasteries.
- Because King Alfred of Wessex was a strong king, he stopped the Vikings taking over all of Britain and they settled in their own area called the Danelaw.
- In 1066 the Normans invaded and won the Battle of Hastings, and a new age of Norman rule began.

History skills I am practising

- I can summarise and evaluate events on a timeline in relation to key concepts or theme (e.g. invaders, war, industry, and technology.)
- I can use more accurate dates when describing and sequencing events.
- I can evaluate the usefulness of primary and secondary sources in historical enquiry.
- I am aware of some pivotal events and people in British history.
- I can evaluate the impact of key historical people and events.

Sequence of learning

1)	Order events of the Anglo Saxons and Vikings chronologically
2)	Evaluate events on a timeline offering justifications
3)	Analyse the life of an Anglo Saxon and what it means to be a 'settler'
4)	Evaluate the effectiveness of primary and secondary sources in relation to the Vikings' invasion
5)	Evaluate the impact of King Alfred of Wessex during his rule as king
6)	Explain the pivotal events during the Battle of Hastings
