

Knowledge Organiser

Year Group:	2	Subject:	History	Term:	Autumn 1
-------------	---	----------	---------	-------	----------

Enquiry Question

Should we remember the 5th of November?

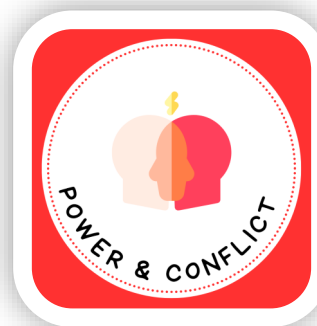

Substantive Knowledge (key facts)

- The Gunpowder Plot was a plot to kill King James I and his government by blowing up the Houses of Parliament.
- Guy Fawkes was arrested on 5th November 1605.
- James I was King at the time & Catholics were treated unfairly.

What should I already know?

- That events happened in the past a long time ago.
- That we celebrate Bonfire night on November 5th

Concept

Sequence of learning

1)	To gather research about the Gunpowder Plot from a range of secondary sources.
2)	To learn how to order current events on a timeline using chronology.
3)	To use drama to learn about the key events of the Gunpowder Plot.
4)	To learn how to order events from a historic event on a timeline.
5)	Learn about the impact of the Gunpowder plot and how it changed England after.
6)	Children will complete a quiz to show their knowledge.

History skills I am practising

- I can order events on a timeline beyond my lifetime.
- I can sequence events that occurred during a historical period.
- I can explain how historical events and people changed things.
- I can research the past using a variety of secondary sources.

Knowledge Organiser

Year Group:

2

Subject:

History

Term:

Autumn 1

Key vocabulary

Tier 2

Plot
Escape

Government

Arrest

Cellar

Tier 3

Treason

Scheme

Houses of Parliament

Conspiracy